The passionate story of the life and love of Lucia, the famous veiled courtesan who broke Casanova’s heart ...

A Beautiful Imperfection tells the empowering story of Lucia, Giacomo Casanova’s only great love, who leaves Italy for Amsterdam after her face has been disfigured by smallpox. Sixteen years later, they meet again when she has reinvented herself as a veiled courtesan now known by the name of Galathée. Without revealing her true identity or showing her face, Lucia and Giacomo become lovers once again. Will Lucia dare to reveal herself and turn her weakness into her strength so that she can be truly free in the eyes of her great love?

Michiel van Erp (“Open Seas”, “Stromboli”, and the award-winning series “Ramses”) directed the English-language romantic drama. He created a modern version with a strong female character, set against the stunning backdrop of Venice. A BEAUTIFUL IMPERFECTION is based on the historical novel “In Lucia’s Eyes” by Arthur Japin, which has been published in over 20 languages and sold more than a million copies worldwide. Jonah Hauer-King (“The Little Mermaid”) is cast in the role of Giacomo Casanova and Dar Zuzovsky (“Hostages”), his first and greatest love, as the courtesan Galathée.

Kira and Ian, two 30-somethings, meet all too briefly over a winter weekend on the Isle of Skye and form a sudden, deep, and surprising bond. Back in London, they try to move on with their separate lives - but both have to stop running from themselves before they are ready to truly meet.

"Falling Into Place" is written and directed by Aylin Tezel, one of Germany's most prolific young actresses. Like all great love stories, it is not just about the love between two individuals, but also about the dreams and anxieties of a generation.

Aylin Tezel („7500“, „Unbroken“) and Chris Fulton („Outlaw King“, „Bridgerton“) head up a cast including Alexandra Dowling („Game of Thrones“), Samuel Anderson („Gunpowder Milkshake“), Layo-Christina Akinlude („The End of the Fing World“), Kathryn Howden („Malevolent“), Michael Carter („The Illusionist“) and Rory Fleck-Byrne („This is Going to Hurt“). DoP Julian Krubasik („We Are Next of Kin“, „Dig Deeper: The Disappearance of Birgit Meier“) was behind the camera. Grammy nominated composer Jon Hopkins („Monsters“) and Ben Lukas Boysen („The Collini Case“) created the score music. And Des Hamilton („Jojo Rabbit“) was responsible for the casting.

Tortured and threatened with deportation, the young German Jew Stella is forced into a fateful tragedy: She begins to track down fellow Jews in hiding.

Stella, a young German Jew, grows up in Berlin during the rule of the Nazi regime. She dreams of a career as a jazz singer, despite all the repressive measures. After she is forced to go into hiding with her parents in February 1943, her life turns into a culpable tragedy. Through a betrayal, she is caught by the Gestapo, tortured and becomes a "grabber": to save herself and her parents from deportation to Auschwitz, Stella begins to systematically betray other Jews. From September 1943 until the end of the war, Stella Goldschlag delivered hundreds of fellow Jews to the Gestapo.

The special relevance of Stella Goldschlag's story for today's audience lies in the complexity of the protagonist and the hopelessness of her situation: "Stella. A Life." is a breathtakingly modern story. Her main character could be one of us: she is young, self-confident and in love with herself. This woman is a perpetrator – but also a victim. She forces us into the dilemma of betrayal. How would we have decided?" says director and writer Kilian Riedhof.

Maka, a Tongan superfan, will do whatever it takes to get tickets to the Tonga v France Rugby World Cup game – even if that means promising to deliver a brass band for the pre-match entertainment. Only problem is, the band doesn't exist and Maka has four weeks to make one. Inspired by a true story.

When Maka and Veni fail in getting tickets for the most important game of their lives, they decide to form a traditional Tongan marching band, just so they can go to the game. No one in their band of misfits knows anything about marching and they practice using plastic bottles and tin cans for instruments. It is a complete shambles and if they can't get their act together, they will embarrass their entire Tongan community in front of the world. However, what starts out as just a cynical scam to see a rugby game becomes a journey of self-discovery in which Maka and Veni will learn the importance of their Tongan culture.
